HUSTON PATTERSON EXPANDS PERSONAL SERVICE FROM COAST TO COAST.

DECATUR, ILL. – Huston Patterson Corp. recently announced client service territory changes from the Atlantic to the Pacific.

“In maintaining Huston Patterson's promise to exceed our client's expectations, we are continually exploring better ways to serve them”, says Huston Patterson President / Chief Executive Officer Thomas W. Kowa. “These minor adjustments in territories will better align our Client Services Managers to provide Huston Patterson's exceptional service capabilities to our existing and new clients, from coast to coast.”

These changes are effective immediately: Kirk Jurgens, Director of Client Services will also serve as the Client Services Manger in the North Western territory consisting of Colorado, Nevada, Oregon, Utah & Washington. Client Services Managers Tonya Kowa-Morelli & Suzanne Underwood are serving the South Western territories including, Arizona, Arkansas, Southern California, Louisiana, New Mexico, Oklahoma and Texas.

Client Services Manger Bruce Hecht will expand his service offerings into Georgia. And Client Services Manger Lee Tirey will extend his capabilities into the South Eastern states of North Carolina, South Carolina and Florida.

“Many companies wonder how we have grown so much over the past few years. It is no secret; it's our exceptional relationships between our clients and staff”, explains Huston Patterson Chief Operating Officer Steve Frantz. “Without these relationships we would not be where we are today. These changes will enable us to serve new clients and markets with confidence.”

As a world-class printing organization, Huston Patterson provides unparalleled value and performance through effective use of technology and craftsmanship by incorporating the unifying principles of trust, integrity and commitment.
